Subject: LAUNCH: SAICA Training Office WhatsApp Channel

07 November 2025

Dear Training Officers and Training Office Administrators,

To enhance and streamline our communication, we've launched a WhatsApp channel where key updates will be shared as needed. This channel is intended to complement – not replace – our existing email communication.

To join the SAICA Training Office channel, scan the QR code below or use the following link:

Please take note of the following regarding the privacy of WhatsApp channels

- Notifications are muted by default. To get notified about new updates, you can turn on notifications for the channel.
- Followers can't reply directly to updates or send messages to channel admins. You can vote on polls or add emoji reactions to channel updates.
- Other people viewing a channel can't see who is following a channel. Your profile information and interactions with channel content, like emoji reactions or poll votes, aren't visible to them. They can't see your name, phone number, or profile picture.
- You're not automatically subscribed to channels. You can browse before you follow, and you can unfollow a channel at any time.
